Membership terms run from Fall Fest to Fall Fest. Members are responsible for notifying TAWN of any changes to the information submitted. Memberships are pro-rated from most recent Fall Fest, and are non-transferrable, non-refundable and do not include a newsletter subscription. Scholarships may be available to members unable to pay but willing to be active.

Please complete and return this entire form to a TAWN Board member or to the P.O. Box, with a check or money order payable to TAWN. Subscriptions to Tapestry, our quarterly newsletter, are $15/4 issues, and available by completing a separate form.

Submission of a signed, paid application for membership is affirmation that you have read and agree to abide by our Code of Ethics, below.

TAWN's Code of Ethics

1. No member will knowingly disrespect or misrepresent TAWN or any of its members. Not precluding discussion or disagreement, all members will treat one another and their various Traditions and practices respectfully.
2. Members appearing at TAWN functions shall be clean and sober; during events, attention will be focused on the member or guest who has the floor and/or is facilitating.
3. Civil and criminal laws and TAWN policies will be obeyed at all TAWN events, and in the performance of TAWN duties. Events sponsored by TAWN are alcohol-free and clothing is required.
4. Not precluding maintenance of order at TAWN events, no member of TAWN shall use his/her membership or personal association with TAWN to manipulate, coerce, or force anyone else's beliefs, understandings, or behaviors.

Submission of this application form, signed and accompanied by a check or money order for membership dues constitutes agreement to follow this code of behavior at all TAWN events.
